

MOORE, Peter

Torrent - Squeezing more from less in a ccd controller

Presenting a new generic detector controller that uses the MONSOON architectural model. The purpose of this development is to replace existing detector controller hardware currently used in operational instrumentation where the controller has become obsolete or difficult to maintain.